

Newlab

Getting to Newlab and the Navy Yard:

After entering the Navy Yard, walk to the Newlab main entrance on 6th Street and Morris Avenue (Building 128) and ring the bell to be let into the building.

Bus

- MTA Bus Lines B67, B48, B57, B62, B69 all stop within or near the Yard.
- The B67 bus stops inside the Yard at the Sands Street gate (near Wegmans), on Market Street (across from Building 77) and at the Clymer Street/Kent Ave gate.
- The B57 and B69 stop outside the Yard at Cumberland Street and Flushing Avenue.
- The B62 stops outside the Yard at Vanderbilt & Park Avenues and is a one-block walk to Flushing Avenue.
- The B48 stops outside the Yard at Flushing and Classon Avenues.

Bike

- The Yard has created a bike-friendly environment with bike racks throughout for registered visitors.
- Citi Bike stations are located both inside and outside of the Yard.

NYC Ferry

- The Astoria Route stops at the Yard's Dock 72.

Car

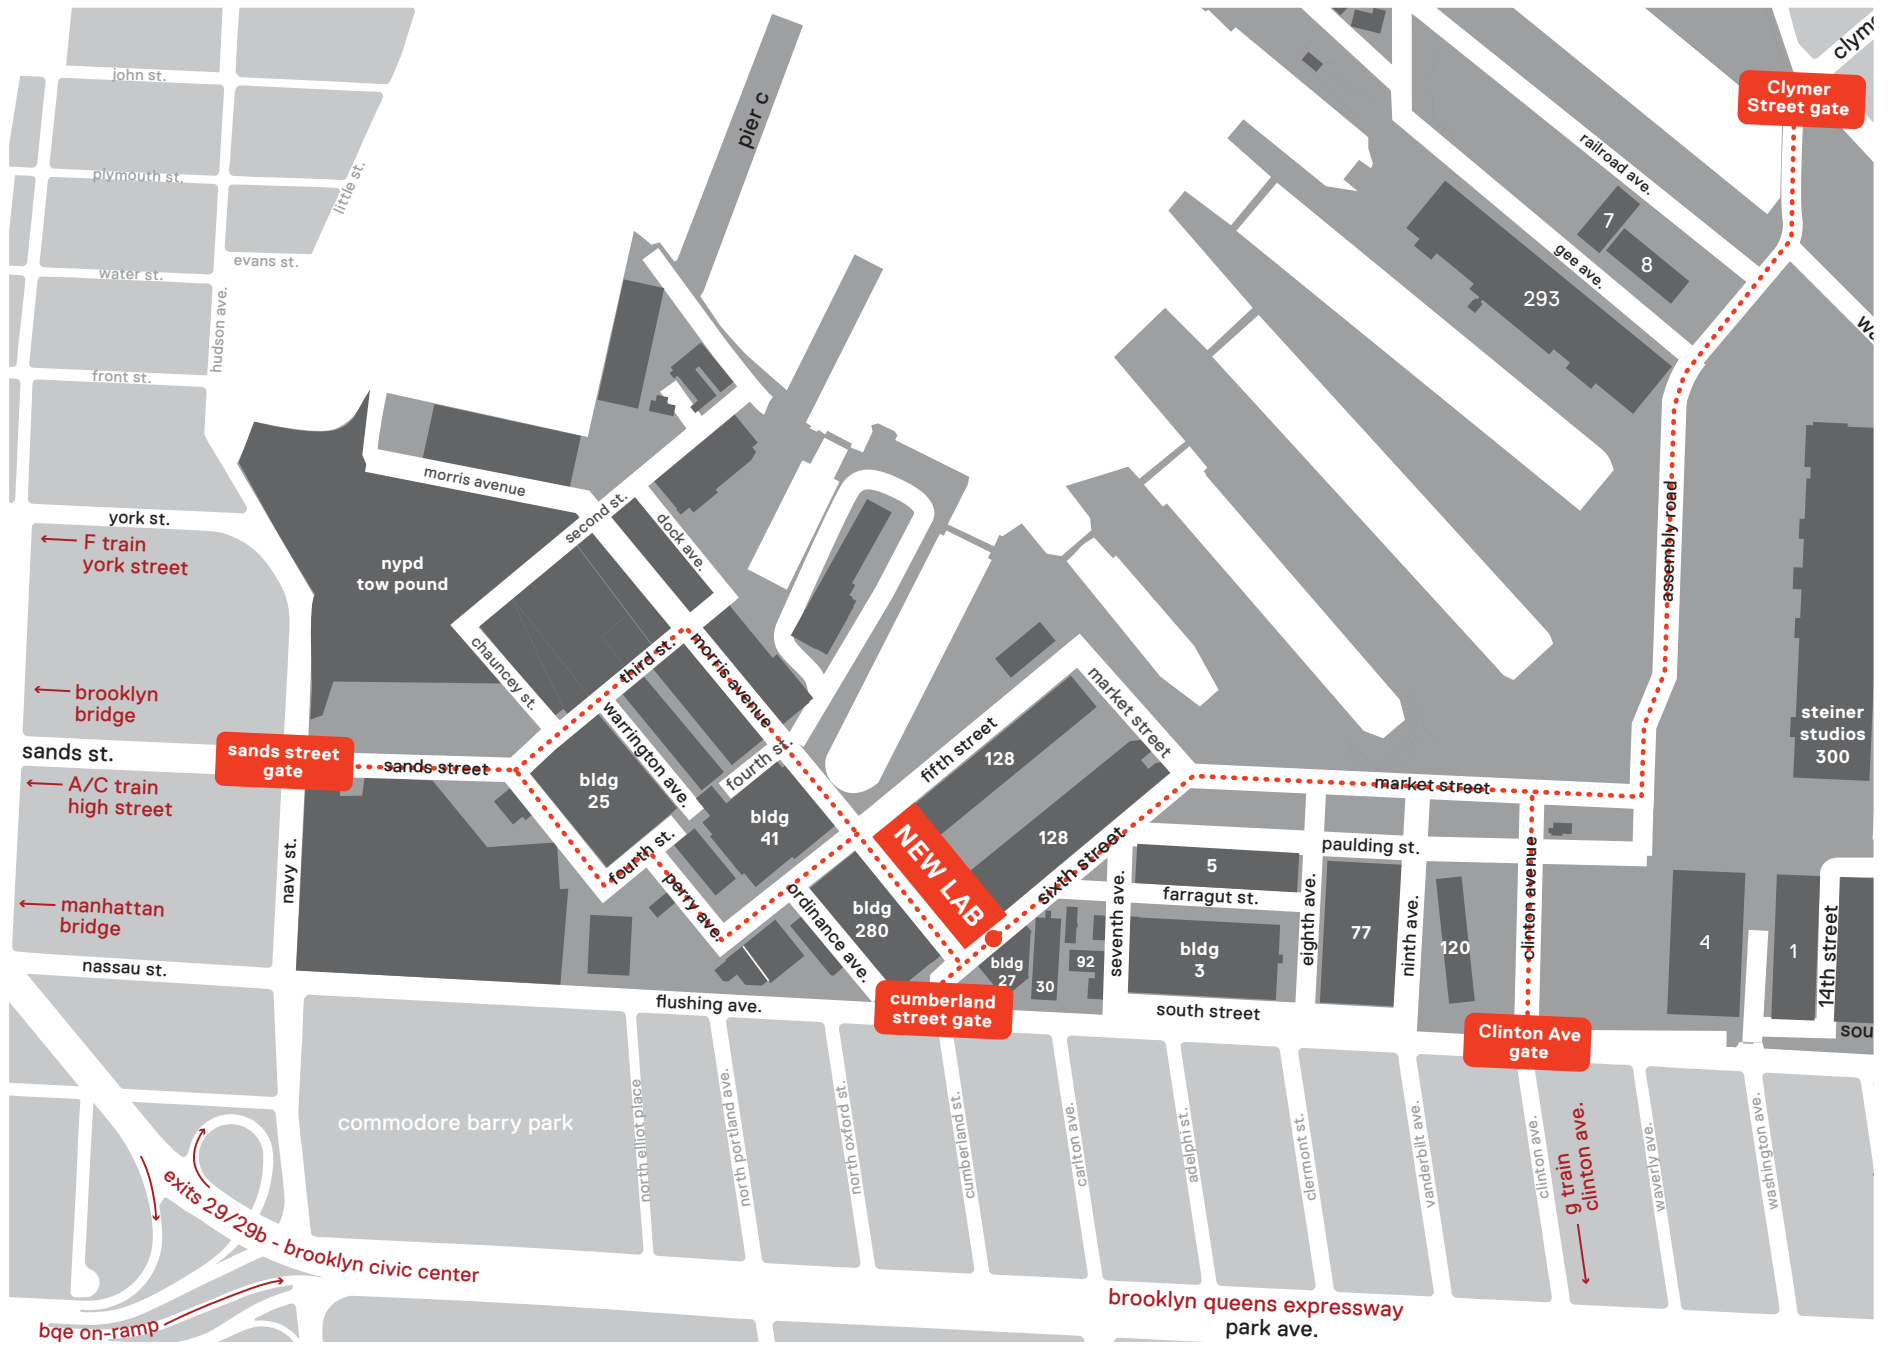

- Use 19 Morris Ave, Brooklyn, NY 11205 for GPS navigation to the Yard. Parking inside the Yard is limited. On-street and metered parking are available outside of the Yard on Flushing Avenue and on many of the adjacent streets. Non-metered parking is available underneath the BQE along Park Avenue.

Subway

- The Brooklyn Navy Yard is easily accessible by subway. Visitors can take the F, G, A, C, 2, 3, 4, 5, B, D, N, Q, and R lines to reach nearby stations that connect with the free Yard shuttle for employees and registered visitors.

BNY Shuttle

- Download the Transloc app at bny.transloc.com for real-time shuttle bus tracking and to be informed of all schedule changes. The Yard offers a free shuttle service for employees and registered visitors to and from DUMBO (connecting to A, C, F trains) and Atlantic Terminal (connecting to G, 2, 3, 4, 5, B, D, N, Q, R and LIRR trains) on weekdays only.
