

Penn State Alumni Association Automatic Renewal Program Terms

Your Penn State Alumni Association membership can be conveniently renewed at the start of each membership year when you sign up for automatic renewal. This means that on the anniversary date of your membership, you will automatically be charged for the next membership year to guarantee uninterrupted access to benefits. An email reminder will be sent prior to your membership renewal date so that you'll know exactly when the transaction will take place. This message will contain any reminders or action required on your behalf.

If you have any questions about auto-renew or would like to enable auto-renew on your existing membership, please contact us at membership@psu.edu.
