

Notes for Saturday Night

Jerry Higgins and John Sayers have put together an ambitious final event for the Class of 1972's 50th Reunion.

Where:

Big Spring Farm

The site is a popular venue boasting a rustic barn, beautiful mountain views, a lake, and many great spots for casual conversation.

When:

4:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.

What:

- Passed hors d'oeuvres, buffet, and dessert by Southern Inn Catering. Two cash bars — remember to use the included drink ticket!
- So Diverse, a four-piece band playing a set before dinner and another after dinner.
  - A '60s/'70s playlist curated by Tom Hathaway and George Williams.
  - Dancing whenever and wherever you like!

Event Photography:

Cadet Christina Skaggs '22 will be on hand to capture candid moments and take special requests and later create an online gallery. Christina is the 1st Battalion S7 Lieutenant. She'll be commissioning in the Navy and heading soon for her first ship.

Weather and Dress:

Think layers... sweater or light jacket... whatever you might need to stay comfortable from later afternoon to around 9 p.m or so. The dress code is casual.

Shuttles and Mobility Assistance:

Shuttles will be running. If you must drive, there's on-grass parking right outside the event area, and the grounds staff will be happy to jockey a golf cart if you need a lift to or from the barn.
